Youth Salish Karaoke

Contest Guidelines and Rules:

Conference website: <http://kalispeltribe.com/our-tribe/language/celebrating-salish-conference>

Follow these steps to enter the 2020 Celebrating Salish Karaoke Contest:

1. Contestants choose their own song and background music and provide a digital file of the background music to the contest organizers; there is no restriction on which song you choose to sing as long as you provide your own background music.
2. Submit your karaoke contest entry form by 4:00 pm on 03/11/20.
3. Email your background music file (mp3 preferred) to: info@salishschoolofspokane.com. For on-site Registration, contestants will be responsible for providing their digital music file by email or on a jump drive by 4:00 pm on 03/11/20.
4. Prepare and practice your Salish or Kootenai lyrics using the music that you have chosen.
5. Prepare your outfit and dance moves.
6. Perform your song at the 2020 Celebrating Salish Conference on Wednesday, March 11, 2020.

Rules and Guidelines:

1. Winners will be selected based on the sole discretion of the judges chosen by Salish School of Spokane (SSOS).
2. All lyrics to be performed MUST BE IN A SALISH LANGUAGE or in KOOTENAI. The use of English or other non-Salish/Kootenai language while singing will automatically disqualify the contestant(s).
3. The inclusion of costumes, outfits, dance moves, and big hair are strongly encouraged.
4. By signing the entry form, all contestants agree to hold Salish School of Spokane, the Kalispel Tribe, and all other contest sponsors harmless from all liabilities and damages arising from the Salish Karaoke Contest.
5. All contestants must check in with contest organizers by 4:00 pm on Wednesday, March 11, and confirm the validity of their digital music file, or their contest entry may be revoked.
6. Contestants will score more points if their song is MEMORIZED.
